No. 21,910. Registered at the General Post Office, Sydney, for transmission by post as a newspaper.

SUMMARY.

Mr. Henry Campbell-Bannerman.—The King has summoned Mr. H. H. Asquith to form a Cabinet. The "Times" heartily congratulates Mr. Asquith.

Arbitration treaties have been signed between Great Britain and the United States, and Norway and the United States.

The employers of Paris have rejected the massive demands, and declared a lockout affecting 50,000 men.

The general election is proceeding at Lisbon. Disorderly crowds were fired upon at Lisbon. Several persons being killed.

Mr. Alfred Vanderbilt is being sued for two old houses at the corner of Castle and Bond streets, London, collapsed, burying 30 people.

There have been serious telegraphic delays in the Indian service through the willful acts of telegraph operators.

In the Cape Colony elections the Minister (South African party) gained 12 seats in the Assembly.

Frank Gotch, an American, defeated Blacksmith at Chicago in a catch-as-catch-can wrestling contest.

May Robinson, the starlet in the Druce mas, has pleaded guilty to perjury.

England and Scotland scored a goal each in an association football match at Glasgow, 2 goals apiece at the gates.

The strike outlook is graver than ever. One difficult point is blocking the way to a settlement.

The difficulty related to the manner in which the free traders and others shall be replaced by unionists.

It is understood that the unions offered to hold these free workers peculiarly indignant.

The settlement offered by the employers is not considered a return to non-unionism.

The engineers decided last night that they would not do this.

The steamer Ross, which left Taitira on Sunday night with a full cargo and many passengers, foundered.

A raft, with 25 passengers, including Captain Bishop, was washed ashore at Wallagoot yesterday morning.

After being on a raft seven hours 77 passengers and 19 men drifted into Outgate.

All were saved, excepting one passenger, who died from exposure.

The Chilean barge Yosemite put back to Horovate yesterday, she having sprung a leak.

The Yosemite is a wooden barge, 40 years old, she sailed last Wednesday with 139 tons of coal for Valparaiso.

The day after leaving port the barge made water more rapidly than the pumps could expel it.

The captain called a council of his officers, and two representatives of the men.

It was resolved to return to port, as to go would have been condemning them to death.

Certain alterations to the Yosemite were proposed. The alterations were proposed to the Captain Secretary yesterday by a deputation.

Mr. Wood said the proposals involved further financial claims on the people.

It was decided to return to port, as to go would have been condemning them to death.

A deputation yesterday asked the Premier to give railway and shipping matters to be represented on the appeal boards.

Mr. Wade promised to discuss the matters brought before him with the Cabinet.

The Chamberlain and the Yosemite Union (N.Z.) has resolved that the Judge of the Arbitration Court is biased.

It urges the Minister for Labour to dispose with Judge Kim, and appoint another Judge "less biased and prejudiced."

Sir Reginald Talbot, Governor of Victoria, has resigned. Private affairs necessitate his presence in England.

An ironmonger named Sydney Fritz Roek is not at his house at Potts Hill, near Roek road, yesterday, and afterwards on his throat.

Roek, before setting fire to the house, smashed up the furniture and crockery. The doctors hope to save Roek's life.

A band of unemployed, headed by Mr. W. M. Komin, demanded to see the Victorian Premier yesterday.

Mr. Bent declined to see the deputation, and it declined to budge till he did.

Komin led a rush on the Premier's door. Mr. Bent appeared at another door, and ordered him off.

The deputation withdrew, but waited for Mr. Bent to pass in his motor car, and greeted him with groans.

The third reading of the Industrial Disputes Bill was agreed to in the Assembly last night by 40 votes to 25.

The bill was then transmitted to the Council, where the first reading was agreed to.

The Vice-President moved the second reading, and the Council afterwards adjourned till to-day.

Sir Norman MacLaurin presided at the monthly meeting of the Sydney University Students' Society.

The annual election of Vice-Chancellor resulted in the appointment of Dr. Cullen, M.C., to the post.

A new bylaw was added, on the recommendation of the Faculty of Science.

A child of 4 years fell from the mail train when passing Albany at full speed, and was seriously injured.

Mr. Charles Anderson denies that the three hatters were induced to come out under coercion.

The three hatters have placed their case before the Prime Minister through Mr. Tudor, M.P.

The Sydney Chamber of Commerce yesterday discussed the proposed restriction of cable codes.

It was resolved to cable a protest to the London Chamber for presentation to the Telegraph Conference.

A committee has been appointed to consider the best means of recognizing the Queensland Premier's public services.

Argument in the union label case was continued at the High Court yesterday.

The electric lighting committee of the City Council yesterday had before it a report on the depreciation of the plant.

Mr. Roek submitted that there were good reasons against making any larger provision for depreciation at the present time.

In the Queensland Legislative Assembly yesterday the second reading of the Constitution Bill was moved by Mr. Blane, and was carried by 12 votes to 10.

The Victorian Railway Commissioners anticipate a reduction in the receipts this year of £100,000 to £150,000.

The decrease in the receipts will be due to reductions in fares and freight.

Altogether the department will be from £200,000 to £300,000 worse off last year.

A young man named Charles E. Goodale shot himself dead on the steamer Gormania yesterday. It is said, accidentally.

The deceased was a native of Carlton, Vic., and at the time was sailing goodby to a friend.

There was limited business in the Share Market yesterday. Silver and copper stocks weakened in value.

Gold and tin shares were not in much favour.

Weather forecast.—Fine inland, and gradually becoming warmer; still a tendency to showers in the north-east.

BRITISH PREMIER RESIGNS
CABINET RECONSTRUCTION.

OWING TO ILL HEALTH.

LONDON, April 6. The "Court Circular" announces that Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the Prime Minister, at the urgent recommendation of his medical advisers, has resigned. The King received the communication with much regret, and accepted the resignation. The resignation of the Prime Minister has caused much regret throughout the country.

There are appreciable and sympathetic comments in all newspapers.

Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman has held the office of Prime Minister for two years and a quarter, having been sworn in in December, 1905, on the resignation of the Marquess of Salisbury. His health has been precarious ever since, following upon a political speech at Bristol in November, 1907, he had a heart attack, and an attack of the prevailing epidemic of influenza at the end of the year. He was not recovered. Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman has held office in every Liberal Government since 1891, climbing up the Ministerial ladder from Under-Secretary to the Secretary of State for War in 1905. The death of his wife in September, 1904, was a great blow to him. He is the father of the House of Commons, having represented Birmingham since 1885.

DISSATISFIED TELEGRAPH
OPERATORS.

DELAYS IN INDIA.

LONDON, April 6. Telegraph operators in India are dissatisfied with the regulations introduced by Mr. Newland, an expert, who was brought by the British Post Office, and willfully delay messages.

Two thousand messages were stopped at Rangoon, and cablegrams from Europe via Teleran are seriously delayed from Karachi onwards.

LONDON ELECTION RIOTS.

TROOPS KILL SEVERAL PEOPLE.

LONDON, April 6. A general election is proceeding in Portugal. At Lisbon troops fired on disorderly crowds at some polling stations. Several people were killed, and others were wounded.

COLLAPSE OF OLD BUILDINGS.

SEVERAL INMATES KILLED.

LONDON, April 6. A terrible accident with loss of life occurred in London early this morning. Two old houses adjoining Berners' Hotel, at the corner of Castle-street and Oxford-street, collapsed, burying 30 people, mostly foreign servants employed in Berners' Hotel and York Hotel.

MILE END FRAUD.

TWO TRADESMEN CHARGED.

LONDON, April 6. James Calcutt, a builder, and Joseph Cade, a coal merchant, who are charged with fraud upon the Mile End Guardians, have been allowed.

MILLIONAIRE'S DIVORCE CASE.

PROCEEDINGS IN CAMERA.

LONDON, April 6. Mr. Alfred Vanderbilt, who is now on route for England to run the Brighton Coach, is being sued for divorce. The newspapers state that he has agreed to pay his wife $200,000. The trial is proceeding in camera.

KILLED DUMA DEPUTIES.

THE DUMA DEPUTIES WHO ARE UNDER SENTENCE HAVE BEEN SEPARATED. SOME HAVE STARTED FOR LIBERIA.

LONDON, April 6. The Duma deputies who are under sentence have been separated. Some have started for Liberia.

HACKENSCHEIDT DEFEATED.

WORLD'S WRESTLING CHAMPIONSHIP.

LONDON, April 6. Frank Gotch, an American, severely punished Hackenschmidt at Chicago during a two-hour catch-as-catch-can wrestling contest. He easily beat Hackenschmidt heavily.

AN AMERICAN VICTORY.

GOTCH IS CONSIDERABLY LIGHTER MAN THAN THE RUSSIAN, WEIGHING ABOUT 190 LB. TO HACKENSCHEIDT'S 250 LB.

The referee disallowed the fall Hackenschmidt refused to continue the contest, thus forfeiting the world's championship.

PRESERVATIVES IN BUTTER.

BRITISH INTENTIONS.

LONDON, April 6. Having heard rumours that the Government is likely to issue regulations to prevent the use of preservatives in butter, Mr. J. W. Taverne has asked Mr. John Burrows, President of the Local Government Board, to give the colonies reasonable notice.

RECORD FOOTBALL MATCH.

ENGLAND V SCOTLAND.

LONDON, April 6. England and Scotland scored a goal each in the Association match yesterday at Glasgow. An enormous crowd was present, numbering 130,000, while 50,000 were turned away from the gates.

THE OLYMPIC GAMES.

BOXING TO BE INCLUDED.

LONDON, April 6. Boxing will be included in the Olympic games in October next if five countries enter. Reginald Baker, of Sydney, intends to compete.

GENERAL GABLE NEWS.

BILLIARDS.

LONDON, April 6. Robert (15,000) defeated Weiss (14,183), playing level on an octagonal table.

LOCKOUT IN PARIS.

FIFTY THOUSAND MEN IDLE.

MR. AQUITH SUMMONED.

POLITICS IN THE MELTING POT.

LONDON, April 6. The King has summoned Mr. H. H. Asquith, Chancellor of the Exchequer, to form a Ministry, after enlarging the loyalty of Mr. Asquith to his party, and his great efforts in the cause of freetrade, says he has sometimes failed to awaken that ardent enthusiasm without which republicanism is impossible. He fights in the cold light of intellectual reason, and the brusqueness of his utterances has sometimes been noted.

Mr. Asquith, the "Daily News" continues, is summoned to the Premiership at a moment of transcendent interest, when politics and methods are in the melting pot, and the future of party and cause is more uncertain than ever. His reputation for accurate judgment of things necessary for the country's welfare, and his courage and successful determination to realise that such are realisable in political change.

The "Daily Chronicle" states that Mr. Asquith has immense stature and unswerving devotion to principle. It is not surprising to see in him the art of managing men.

Owing to Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman's illness the "Daily Chronicle" adds, the Government for some little time lately seems to have lost its grip over the country. Mr. Asquith is the man to whom the House of Commons, having represented Birmingham since 1885.

THE CONSERVATIVE VIEW.

WELCOME TO MR. AQUITH.

The "Times" heartily congratulates Mr. Asquith on his promotion, and affirms that he has discharged the duties of the Premiership with the most commendable ability, under unusual difficulties.

The "Standard" contrasts the sympathies and methods of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman and Mr. Asquith, and concludes that it is necessary that Mr. Asquith should rely on the Centre and not on the left of his party.

The "Daily Telegraph" writes that the country expects Mr. Asquith to show greater firmness and yield less to the extreme Radicals than Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman did, and to bring his Irish policy more into accord with the elementary principles of good government.

Asquith's moderation, and expects that there will be a further purging of the Liberal programme.

The "Morning Post" is friendly to Mr. Asquith.

The resignation of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman was generally expected. So we learned from Mr. H. W. Lucy in his "Life in the House of Commons" that the Conservative "Saturday Review" wrote in February it was the opinion of the House of Commons that the Liberal party wishes to hold together no doubt, and Mr. Asquith's resignation would be a disaster to the Liberal party.

Mr. Asquith, who is 55 years of age, has represented East Fife in the House of Commons since 1886. He attained Cabinet rank in 1905, and has since held various offices, being appointed Home Secretary in 1905, and Secretary of the Admiralty in 1906.

He was elected one of its vice-presidents, his colleagues, who are now colleagues of the Liberal League, and he has been a member of the House of Commons since 1886.

A MADMAN'S ACT.

SETS FIRE TO HIS HOUSE.

CUTS HIS THROAT.

STARTLING INCIDENT AT POTTS HILL.

A serious occurrence, which excited much concern at Rockwood, was reported yesterday. An ironmonger, named Sydney Potts, Rockwood, and afterwards cut his throat.

A little before 5 o'clock this morning he lit a kerosene lamp in his bedroom, and then, as he was going to leave them clear out, what he stood up in his actions subsequently showed the deliberation and thoroughness of his act.

He started by smashing up furniture and crockery, and then, as he was about to enter his bedroom, he was seized by a fit of insanity, and he cut his throat with a razor.

The demented man then gathered sticks and other inflammable material, and carrying them into a loft up a ladder he set fire to them, and the fire spread rapidly.

He was rescued by the fire brigade, and taken to the Rockwood Hospital, where he was placed in a ward.

A MADMAN'S ACT.

SETS FIRE TO HIS HOUSE.

CUTS HIS THROAT.

STARTLING INCIDENT AT POTTS HILL.

A serious occurrence, which excited much concern at Rockwood, was reported yesterday. An ironmonger, named Sydney Potts, Rockwood, and afterwards cut his throat.

A little before 5 o'clock this morning he lit a kerosene lamp in his bedroom, and then, as he was going to leave them clear out, what he stood up in his actions subsequently showed the deliberation and thoroughness of his act.

He started by smashing up furniture and crockery, and then, as he was about to enter his bedroom, he was seized by a fit of insanity, and he cut his throat with a razor.

The demented man then gathered sticks and other inflammable material, and carrying them into a loft up a ladder he set fire to them, and the fire spread rapidly.

He was rescued by the fire brigade, and taken to the Rockwood Hospital, where he was placed in a ward.
